

Why does a state have to have weaker laws & regulations? If New Jersey citizens wish to have a more stringent Do Not Call list we have the right. We will not be violating any federal laws. If states want to weaken their own, they have the right to do so also.